

Please protect our right to privacy. The no call list has worked exceptionally well and should not be change EVER!. I have a right to determine who can solicit my home via the telephone, not large corporations or government. I want continued control of my household privacy from telephone solicitation.